

Fibre optics made for you!

Sign up for TNG fibre optics now for a permanent price of € 19.95*!

We have some good news for you today. TNG fibre optic will soon be available in your building! Thanks to our cooperation with your property management company, Vonovia SE, we can use the existing infrastructure in your flat. All that remains is to extend our TNG fibre optic network to your building.

And best of all: in addition to our tariffs with powerful 1,000 Mbit/s download speeds, you can book fibre optic tariffs for just €19.95* per month, which are available exclusively at your address.

In order to offer you our tariffs for a stable and fast Internet connection, no further access to your home is necessary. We only need the HomeID of your connection. You can find this in the Genexis box.

How to find your Home ID:

- Carefully press on the side of the Genexis cover
- In some cases: use the unlock button
- Now pull the cover towards you slightly
- Turn the cover counterclockwise until it stops
- Then simply remove the cover
- The Home ID is now visible on the inside

Don't wait any longer and get a powerful start to the digital future today!
